

Autism involves:

- different development
- different way of experiencing and understanding the world