

Talking in pictures/ Comic strip conversations

- A conversation using simple drawings and/or text.
- The pictures/words illustrate what you are talking about and serve as visual support.
- You can use talking in pictures to discuss something that happened, or to prepare the child for something that will happen.
- It may be good to save the pictures and look at them again later.