

Pain relief before wound dressing

Child's ID

We recommend that you give your child the following doses of pain relief medicine at least one hour before their booked appointment at the clinic. This is to prevent and reduce pain when redressing their wound.

These doses are only to be given before this appointment and according to hospital routines for pain relief. They are a one time dose and should not be repeated.

Name of medicine, type and concentration:

Dose:

AND

Name of medicine, type and concentration:.....

Dose:.....

Appointment time:

Responsible doctor:.....

Children's emergency department

Written by Anna Vedin, RN