

Agenda

Wednesday September 28

Welcome & Introductory session

- 19.00-19.15 Welcome
Jan Sunnegårdh & Ewa-Lena Bratt, Gothenburg
- 19.15-20.00 VR Holocare
Jonas Hurtig & Holocare team, Oslo
- 20.00-20.15 Organization of Paediatric Cardiac Surgery
Mats Synnergren, Gothenburg

Thursday September 29

Support to patients with congenital heart defects and their families

Moderator: Katarina Hanséus, Lund & Ewa-Lena Bratt, Gothenburg

- 08.15-08.50 Twenty years of the early intervention CHIP programme – long-term psychosocial outcomes following congenital heart disease The CHIP programme
Nicola Doherty & Christopher McCusker, Dublin
- 08.50-09.25 HOBBS baby – A mobile application to support parents of infants with severe cardiac disease
Elin Hjort Johansen & Henrik Holmström, Oslo
- 09.25-10.00 Stepstones – Swedish Transition Effects Project Supporting Teenagers with Chronic Medical Conditions
Mariela Acuna Mora & Markus Saarijärvi, Gothenburg

10.00 -10.30 COFFEE

Management of right heart lesions

Moderator: Petru Liuba, Lund & Hans Lidén, Gothenburg

- 10.30-10.45 Early desaturation in babies with Fallot's anomaly; Surgeons view
Caner Salih, Evelina Hospital, UK & Mats Synnergren, Gothenburg
- 10.45-11.00 Early desaturation in babies with Fallot's anomaly; Cardiologists view
Anders Nygren, Gothenburg

- 11.00-11.30 Management of Fallot's anomaly after corrective surgery
Michael Rahbeck Schmidt, Copenhagen
- 11.30-11.45 Pulmonary atresia intact septum; results after catheter treatment
Håkan Wåhlander, Gothenburg
- 11.45-12.00 Handling of patients with Tetralogy of Fallot in Northeastern part of Thailand
Yuttapong Wongswadiwat, Khon Kaen, Thailand

12.00-13.00 LUNCH

Left sided obstructive congenital heart disease

Moderator: Håkan Wåhlander, Gothenburg & Henrik Holmström, Oslo

- 13.00-13.15 The impact of adding pulse oximetry screening to prenatal screening for left heart obstructive lesions - a 6 -year study of Swedish national data
Katarina Lannering, Gothenburg
- 13.15-13.30 Valvular aortic stenosis in the neonate; The Swedish experience
Cecilia Kjellberg Olofsson, Sundsvall-Gothenburg
- 13.30-13.45 Valvular aortic stenosis in the neonate; The Finnish experience
Maria Hurskainen, Helsinki
- 13.45-14.00 Valvular aortic stenosis in the neonate; The Norwegian experience
Anders Haugom Christensen, Oslo
- 14.00-14.30 Surgical aspects in valvular aortic stenosis in the neonatal period
Caner Salih, Evelina Hospital, London, UK & Mats Synnergren, Gothenburg

14.30 -15.00 COFFEE

ICD treatment in children

Moderator: Anders Nygren, Gothenburg & TBD

- 15.00-15.20 ICD therapy in the young: Prevalence and analyses of appropriate shocks and adverse events in a Swedish nationwide cohort
Camilla Wirestrand, Stockholm

15.20-15.45 Indications for ICD treatment in the Nordic countries
Håkan Eliasson, Stockholm

15.45-16.10 Aspects of programming of ICD in Hypertrophic cardiomyopathy in children
Ilkka Jaakkola, Helsinki

16.10-16.35 Risk assessment for primary prophylactic ICD in children with hypertrophic cardio-myopathy
Ingegerd Östman-Smith, Gothenburg

19.00 DINNER AT SCANDIC RUBINEN

Friday September 30

Fetal Cardiology

Moderator: Jesper Steensberg, Copenhagen & Taisto Sarkola, Helsinki

08.00-08.20 The Lund-Malmö approach to achieve high prenatal detection rates
Misha Bhat, Lund

08.20-08.40 The Danish approach to achieve high prenatal detection rates
Charlotte Kvist Ekelund, Copenhagen

08.40-09.00 The fetal cardiac registry in Sweden
Gunnar Bergman, Stockholm

09.00-09.20 Fetal cardiac MRI – clinical utility and future potential
Katrin Fricke, Lund

09.20-09.40 AEPC prospective study on fetal intervention in aortic stenosis
Mats Mellander, Gothenburg

09.45-10.15 COFFEE

Free paper session

Moderator Mats Mellander & Jan Sunnegårdh, Gothenburg

10.15-10.30 Survival with respect to morphology in pulmonary atresia and intact ventricular septum in Sweden
Stina Manhem, Gothenburg

- 10.30-10.45 Obstetric complications in women with congenital heart disease; a nationwide cohort study from Norway 1994-2014
Marit Gulbrandsen Sandberg, Bergen
- 10.45-11.00 Myocardial function in childhood cancer survivors
Britt Engan, Bergen
- 11.00-11.15 Events and trends in cerebral blood flow during cardiac surgery measured by NeoDoppler
Martin Leth-Olsen, Trondheim
- 11.15-11.30 ICD shock therapy in the Danish paediatric population
Jani Thuraiaiyah, Copenhagen
- 11.30-11.45 Swedish paediatric patients with Catecholaminergic Polymorphic Ventricular Tachycardia and Brugada Syndrome – increased awareness enables earlier diagnosis
Emilia Sundström, Umeå
- 11.45-12.00 Heart rate response during submersion into water in children with Long QT syndrome
Anna Lundström, Umeå
- 12.00-12.15 In vitro fertilization in women with CHD
Sara Jonsson, Umeå
- 12.15-13.00 LUNCH and Farewell

Parallel program nurses and allied health professionals

Thursday September 29

Models of care in nursing within congenital heart disease

Moderator Ewa-Lena Bratt, Gothenburg, Sweden

10.30-10.45 TBA

10.45-11.10 TBA

11.10-11.35 Anna Jakobsson, Uppsala, Sweden

11.35-12.00 Early family focused interventions to promote best outcomes for children with Congenital Heart Disease – The CHIP Study
Christopher McCusker, Ireland & Nicola Doherty, Northern Ireland

12.00-13.00 LUNCH

Successful collaborations between Health Care Professionals and Patient Organizations

Moderator Sofi Andersson-Stavridis, Gothenburg, Sweden

13.00-13.30 Development of a colouring book – a way for children to prepare for and understand the hospital stay
Sille Hohlman Laursen, Copenhagen, Annette Ulrich, Copenhagen

13.30-14.00 Collaboration within Fetal Cardiology in Norway
Pia Bråss, Oslo

14.00-14.20 TBA

14.30 -15.00 COFFEE

Abstract session for nurses and allied health professionals

Moderator Ewa-Lena Bratt & Sofi Andersson-Stavridis, Gothenburg, Sweden

15.00-17.00

Friday September 30

10.00-10.45 – movie CHIP

11.00-11.45 – movie CHIP

SPONSOR'S:

HOLOCARE

Bringing medical imaging to life

We're transforming how clinicians see and engage with medical images with intuitive, easily generated holograms for pre-operative planning.

